

Peter MCARTHUR 1805 – 1892

Peter MCARTHUR was 47 years of age when he arrived in Portland, Victoria, in 1852. He brought his third wife and all of his eleven children with him to start a new life in Mount Gambier. His first two wives had died young, so is that why he moved half way around the world? There were also major changes to agriculture in Scotland at the time, so he probably had many reasons to make the move. Peter and Isabella had one more child in Mount Gambier, so they would have made a significant contribution to the local population.

Peter's grandfather was Edward MCARTHUR, born in the 1730's, and married Anne HOUSTOUN in 1761 in the parish of Kilbarchan, just west of Glasgow. One of their children was Edward McARTHUR, baptised in 1771 in Kilbarchan. Edward married Janet MCEACHERN by 1805, when Peter was born on the Isle of Mull, in March 1805.

Peter married three times, but sadly his first two wives died early. His first wife was Cirsty LIVINGSTONE, and they married in 1827. Two children followed, but I cannot discover what happened to Cirsty. Peter married again in 1833, to Mary MORISON, and had five more children, the fourth being Christina MCARTHUR. Again, I cannot discover what happened to Mary, but Peter has all the children when he marries Isabella MCLEAN in 1842. This couple have four children in Scotland, making a total of eleven children when Peter and Isabella leave Liverpool for Australia.

They arrived in Portland, Victoria in December 1852, and at once headed to Mt Gambier. Peter worked for the pastoralist Dr WEHL for three years at Compton, before buying land and farming on his own account on the property he called 'Greenvale'. At his death, Peter had more than 120 living descendants. His daughter Christina married Duncan BUCHANAN, and they did very well farming at Square Mile, south of Mt Gambier.

You can read about the BUCHANAN family in my BUCHANAN narrative previously published.
