Personal web page: <https://iansquire.com/tng/getperson.php?personID=155&tree=squire>

Sarah Ann Edwina ASHBY is another of Anne's ancestors that married into her direct line. She was born in 1817 in Barnstaple, Devon, and married John STODART in 1842, in Barnstaple. Sarah is recorded as still being in Barnstaple in the 1841 census, and for the 1851 census, she is listed with husband John and their family in Bath in Somerset. They left England soon after for Australia, arriving in Melbourne in September 1852. Sarah died in Melbourne in 1890, but her eldest child and daughter, also Sarah, married Alfred CHAMBERS and they came to Adelaide in South Australia, in about 1866. Sarah is Anne's great great grandmother.

Source of the ASHBY surname:

This is an English habitational name from any of numerous places in northern and eastern England called Ashby, from Old Norse askr 'ash' (or in one instance possibly from the Old Norse personal name Aski) + by 'farm'.

John ASHBY b?

Sarah's earliest ancestor I can be confident about is John ASHBY, but I only know his name from a son's baptism certificate, and there were no John ASHBY's born/baptised anywhere near Devon in our timeframe. I do know John married Agnes LUKE in 1790 in Stoke Damerel, a suburb in Plymouth, Devon.

John ASHBY b1791

John ASHBY junior was born in 1791, in Devonport, also a suburb of Plymouth in Devon. John married Sally LAPP in 1813, in Barnstaple, Devon.

Sarah Ann Edwina ASHBY b1817

Sarah ASHBY was born in 1817 in Barnstaple, Devon, which is around 80km North of Plymouth. Sarah met and married John STODART in 1842 in Barnstaple, Devon. They spent most of their time in or near Bath, before emigrating to Victoria, Australia, in 1852.

The narrative continues in the extensive John STODART narrative, and then in the KEIGHTLEY narrative, both having been previously published. You can read John STODART's narrative here:
